Index of a Place Exhibition Reception

February 15 @ 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm

“Index to a Place” is a group exhibition, part of the “Festival of Personal Geographies”. The opening reception will be held on Friday, Feb. 15th, from 6 to 8 p.m. The exhibition includes 8 artists: Alex Braidwood, Diana Behl, Tibi Chelcea, Sage Dawson, Kristen Greteman, Mary Jones, Catherine Reinhart, and Amenda Tate. These artists use mapping conventions to talk about the passage of time, and to examine the essence of places seen, overlooked, or imagined. All artists combine historic and contemporary printmaking and drawing methods in unconventional ways in their works. The media represented in the exhibition are screenprinting, collagraph, intaglio, photopolymer intaglio, relief, digital, robot-aided drawings, and photography.
